Regarded by many critics as the inventor of the modern ghost story and a superb practitioner of suspense fiction, Irish writer Sheridan Le Fanu brought chills to his fellow Victorians, including Mary Shelley, Bram Stoker, and Robert Louis Stevenson. Henry James called his work "the ideal reading in a country house for the hours after midnight." This exclusive Signet Classic collection of thirteen favorite stories lets readers rediscover Le Fanu's fiction and experience his use of an atmosphere of menace, his juxtaposition of sex and fear, and his keen psychological insights. In the title story, "Carmilla," an innocent young woman is dangerously drawn to a beautiful, mysterious female friend. Melancholy, madness, and murder make "The Evil Guest" a brooding whodunit with a surprise ending. "The Murdered Cousin" centers on the mystery surrounding a locked room; "The White Cat of Drumgunniol" combines folklore and the supernatural; and "Schalken the Painter" is a bloodcurdling story of a young woman's seduction - by a dead man. Seen from a modern perspective, Le Fanu is a forerunner of today's horror genre - a dark Victorian whose taste for the macabre still fascinates and entertains.
